

Elementary Physical Education Teacher

Post Date: February, 2025
Application Deadline: March 7, 2025

Position Summary

Whitehall District Schools is looking for an energetic and passionate Physical Education teacher to join our elementary team for the 2025-2026 school year! We seek an educator who not only inspires a love for movement and fitness but also embraces the challenge of helping every student succeed. If you are a lifelong learner, thrive in a collaborative environment, and bring the enthusiasm and dedication needed to engage young learners every day, we encourage you to apply. Teaching is one of the most challenging yet rewarding professions, and we are excited to welcome a teacher who is ready to make a lasting impact on our students' lives!

Essential Duties

- Create an engaging health and fitness environment for K-5 students.
- Collaborate with colleagues, parents, and students.
- Inspire and motivate students to develop a lifelong love of physical activity.
- Foster independent learning and student success.
- Use technology to enhance instruction and engagement.
- Plan and deliver effective, developmentally appropriate PE lessons.
- Promote healthy lifestyles and physical well-being.
- Maintain strong classroom management and respond appropriately to behavior.
- Stay organized and meet deadlines effectively.
- Assess student progress and provide constructive feedback.
- Encourage teamwork, sportsmanship, and positive social interactions.

Education and Experience

- Valid Michigan Elementary Ed teaching certificate, with MX, MA, MC or MB endorsement
- Experience working with children
- A love of physical activity and movement

Compensation

- Per Teacher Contract
- School Year Schedule
